

RESOLUTION ~~---~~³2017

NEGOTIATION PROTOCOL AGREEMENT: WAGE NEGOTIATIONS PROCESS

1. Noting

1.1 Parties having evaluated the 2015 wage negotiations, committed to approaching the ensuing wage negotiations with a joint solution seeking (JSS) approach in that:

- (a) Parties will spend significant time analysing and understanding issues before seeking solutions;
- (b) Parties will evaluate all possible solutions by assessing them against the identified needs and interests;
- (c) Only after such assessment will the parties seek to select between possible alternatives, rejecting those found not to be suitable and choosing preferred solutions to any particular issue.

1.2 Parties commit to embark on a structured, step by step process to identify and effectively deal with factors aggravating the conflict in the negotiations including those issues recorded on the wage negotiations evaluation report.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this Negotiation Protocol is to:

- (a) Set out parties joint commitment to conduct effective interest based negotiations;
- (b) Set out parties joint commitment to certain shared objectives;and
- (c) Establish a process framework and timetable for each identified cycle of negotiations

4.2 If/when a facilitator(s) is appointed, the facilitator after consultation with the parties will determine, from time to time and as the negotiations progress, in what order to deal with the items on the bargaining agenda, when to hold joint and side meetings, when to hold plenary or smaller working group meetings, and generally, to facilitate an effective joint problem solving interest based negotiations. At an appropriate stage in the negotiations, the facilitator(s) must use a single text procedure to capture areas of agreement and disagreement in a single document, which will be used as the basis for drafting the final agreement. The facilitator will manage the negotiation process and the timetable with a view to meeting all reasonable timeframes for negotiations as contemplated in this protocol agreement.

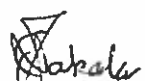

4.3 If a facilitator(s) is not appointed, the parties will commence negotiation in a joint meeting, and commit to further meetings, including smaller working group meetings where necessary and in so doing commit to follow a joint solution seeking process.

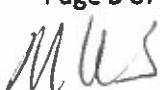

5. Dispute Resolution

The parties agree that any dispute regarding the interpretation and application of this protocol will be resolved in terms of the dispute resolution procedure of Council.
